

Leonard Mallett Joins Summit Midstream as Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer

November 16, 2015

THE WOODLANDS, Texas, Nov. 16, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Summit Midstream Partners, LP (NYSE: SMLP) announced today that Leonard Mallett has been named Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer of Summit Midstream Partners, LLC, and Summit Midstream GP, LLC (the "general partner"), which manages and operates SMLP. This appointment is effective December 1, 2015. Mallett will have strategic oversight and primary responsibility for Summit's engineering, construction, and operations functions.

Mallett, who will be based at Summit's corporate headquarters in The Woodlands, Texas, assumes primary responsibility for the profitable, safe, and environmentally compliant operations of the Company's assets. He will provide organizational leadership for all planning and execution of projects and operations across Summit's diversified footprint including natural gas gathering, treating, and processing facilities, crude oil and produced water. Mallett will report directly to Steve Newby, Summit's President and Chief Executive Officer.

"Summit has a commitment to develop and maintain a safe, effective and efficient operations platform. Leonard brings a unique blend of engineering, operations, and project management experience that naturally align to our strategic priorities as we double in size over the next several years," said Mr. Newby. "His strong credibility and leadership in our industry will only enhance our ability to execute on significant development and expansion projects and continue our focus on value creation for our stakeholders. We are extremely excited that Leonard is joining the Summit team."

Mallett has more than 35 years of industry experience. Most recently he served as Senior Vice President of Engineering for Enterprise Products Partners, L.P. (EPD), where he was responsible for the engineering, project management, sourcing and technical support functions supporting all of EPD's pipeline and related plants.

Mallett began his career with TEPPCO as a Project Engineer and spent the next three decades working with TEPPCO and successor entities in various engineering, transportation, and operations roles. At the end of 2006, EPD bought TEPPCO's General Partner from Duke Energy Field Services, at which time Mallett was serving as SVP of Operations for TEPPCO. Post-merger, Mallett was named SVP-Environmental, Health and Safety, where he also trained in emergency response and was named Incident Commander.

Mallett holds a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Prairie View A&M University and a Master of Business Administration from Houston Baptist University.
