Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 19, 2020, Summit Midstream Partners, LP (“SMLP”) announced that Leonard W. Mallett, the Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer of Summit Midstream GP, LLC (the “Company”), the general partner of SMLP, will be departing the Company to pursue other interests. The Company manages and operates SMLP, including through its affiliate, Summit Operating Services Company, LLC. Mr. Mallett’s employment with the Company will terminate effective October 31, 2020.

In an effort to further align the Company’s organizational and cost structure with the near term challenging business environment the industry is facing, the Chief Operations Officer position will be eliminated upon Mr. Mallett’s departure. Functions previously reporting up through the Chief Operations Officer position will now report up through the Chief Executive Officer.
